OXFORD - STRATFORD UPON AVON - MIDSOMER MURDER
COUNTRY AND A FABULOUS ALLO ALLO EVENING AT THE POPULAR HOLT HOTEL

DAY ONE: FRIDAY, 10th AUGUST 2012.

We board our luxury tour coach at local departure points where your driver "Rene" will be ready to welcome you aboard with a big "Good Moaning". We travel to our first destination - to The City of Dreaming Spires OXFORD - enjoy the magnificent sights of this Cosmopolitan city with its glorious buildings of golden stone, topped with towers and domes that have shaped this graceful and timeless city. If its shopping you crave Oxford has got the lot from a wonderful covered market to the vibrant city centre overlooked by its famous tower. Alternatively you can wander in the foot-steps of Inspector Morse and take in the splendour of the Universities. Following our visit we head for the Holt Hotel, to settle into our rooms and enjoy our evening meal.

DAY TWO: SATURDAY, 11th AUGUST 2012.

Following breakfast, we have a delightful day ahead to discover the villages and market towns full of character and charm featured in MIDSOMER MURDERS. First we stop at DORCHESTER, one of the prettiest Midsomer country villages, many of its areas are used in filming including the Abbey & Museum both well worth a visit. Our next stop will be WALLINGFORD the most recognisable Midsomer location and is "Causton" in the series, which often featured the Corn Exchange and the Market Place. Finally we travel to HENLEY-ON-THAMES, overlooked by beautiful Chiltern hills and only a few strides from the riverbank. Henley is as British as cream teas & boaters and has been frequently visited by DCI Barnaby. We return for the Pista Resistance of this tour for our evening meal and the ALLO ALLO PRODUCTION. The performers are fully trained professional actors, often treading the boards of the West End, they will provide an outstanding performance in a relaxed environment during your dinner. So welcome to Cafe Rene for an evening of hilarious antics based on this popular show. Your ever fretful Rene is doing his best to hide his affair with Eyvette, while at the same time keeping one step ahead of the Germans, the Resistance, but mainly his wife, Edith, who may burst into song at any moment, so please have your cheese ready for your ears. Where are the Airmen? Watch out for Herr Flick! Has anyone seen the painting of the fallen Madonna with the Big Boobies! So join Rene and his gang, sit back to enjoy this very special evening.

You will be more than welcome to dress as your favourite character from this much loved show.

DAY THREE: SUNDAY, 12th AUGUST 2012.

After breakfast, we head to experience the delights of STRATFORD UPON AVON. With beauty second to none, made complete by the tranquillity of the River Avon and Internationally famous as the birthplace of William Shakespeare. One of the best ways to enjoy Stratford is to take the "Guide Friday" bus tour which you can hop on and off at various stops, this takes in all the main Shakespearian buildings - Anne Hathaway's Cottage; Shakespeare's birthplace and Mary Arden's House or just enjoy a stroll along the river or visit the superb selection of stores from the top named to olde worle curiosity shops.

Concluding our visit we bid Adieu to the Bards very own town and take a relaxed journey homewards.

OUR HOTEL: THE HOLT HOTEL - STEEPLE ASTON.
